BOY PLUS TENT means summer fun for Jeffrey Clark

Jeffrey Decides His Bed Beats Outdoor Tenting

Typical of adventurous little boys the world over, Jeffrey Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Clark, 21125 S. Hobart Blvd., dreamed of the great outdoors and camping out as he had seen cowboys do in the TV shows.

Jeffrey was 5 years old July 1 and to his delight, his parents gave him a tent as a birthday gift. To add to his joy, permission was given for him to camp out over night in the new tent.

His birthday party during the afternoon was in the form of a camp out and the children cooked their own hot dogs over the barbecue and helped themselves to birthday cake and punch.

Guests were Jimmy and Joe Hearron, Marty Hunstad, Melinda Johnson, Becky and Joyce Ascraft, and Jeff's brothers and sister, Jonathan, Linda, Timmy and Greg.

Bedtime came early for Jeff. He donned a pair of jeans, three shirts, and his cowboy print pajamas, called his dog, and started on his adventure. No time to wait for dad to come home from work—family dinner was not necessary. But Jeff couldn't settle down. Perhaps it would be nice if one of his brothers would join him. But none of the boys wanted to camp.

Company came and Jeff had to be polite so in the house he went again. Back and forth he went. That sleeping bag was not as soft as his bed. His dog would not stay quiet. Jeff could not sleep.

"It must be morning by now," he thought. In the house he trudged, followed by wide-awake Patsy, his Eskimo dog. It was 9 p.m. and no one else wanted to stay up so Jeffrey was settled in his comfortable bed, safe in the house with the rest of the family. "But I'm going to try again," he declares.

He probably will. Jeff is the adventurous type.

Club Re-Elects Mrs. Phillip Clark

Many guests from other garden groups were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Persons of the California National Society and the C. O. Ellippers of the Lomita branch.

Plants were given to the four new club members, Mrs. J. H. Wehrman, Mrs. Marjorie Ellis, Helen McGranahan and Mrs. Dorothy Dupras.

Seeing Double? No Doubt of It

Those in the vicinity of Ladera Park, Inglewood, today will think they are seeing double. They will be right.

More than 70 pair of twins and their families will picnic in the park, have free ice cream for the children, and games for both adults and children.

The twins are responsible for the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club and the Westside Mothers of Twins Clubs who are co-sponsoring the picnic today.

The clubs meet monthly for dinner programs, and once again during the month for a "coffee" in the home of a member. The organization has its practical side other than giving the mothers a social outlet. Members exchange ideas on raising twins, trade no longer needed twin articles of clothing and equipment.

Club Will Meet Twice This Week

Betsy Ross Club will meet July 15 at the Torrance Masonic Temple for a dessert to be served at noon. Members are requested to bring sandwiches.

Third in a series of pot luck dinners and social evenings will be held Saturday evening in the home of Violet Shackleton, 1613 Torrance blvd. Co-hostesses will be Lucy Bettal and Francis Reiser.
